

Audio Bestsellers/Nonfiction

BY SHANNON MAUGHAN

May

Teacher Man McCourt wraps up another month of publicity (which fittingly comes as the academic year winds down) with appearances on CBS-TV's The Late Late Show (May 1) and at the New York Public Library (May 11).

Psychic Browne is on the lecture circuit until the end of the year. You can check out her busy tour schedule at www.hay-house.com/tour\_details.php?tour\_id=8. "As always, audience members will be selected for live readings from a completely random drawing of wristband numbers," touts her publisher. But if you can't make the scene, an audiobook is the next best thing

Hear more about the way to wealth, beginning with a strategy for owning your own home, on the bonus audio Automatic Homeowner Program via Bach's lively podcast at: www.finishrich.com. The audio of Bach's latest bestseller is reviewed on page 60.

"If you stop working today, an asset puts money in your pocket and a liability takes money from your pocket," explains Rich Dad. "Too often people call liabilities assets. It's important to know the difference between the two." Still going strong after four years in release, this audiobook offers listeners tips for improving "financial literacy."
